Going to church does not make us a Christian any more than going to McDonald's makes us a hamburger..

Music Notes

"Father God, Just for Today," the song we sing at the end of our worship service, was written by Marc Schleske. He wrote it in 1994 when he was doing Week of Prayer at Gem State Academy. Friday afternoon he sat on the stage, in the dark playing the piano, and this song "just came out." That week he taught it to the students. His comments about this song, "This life isn't about me. It's not about what I create or accomplish. My value isn't dependent on my performance. And sometimes, like this once, I get a tiny window into the possibility that God can do big things in and around me that I'm not even aware of."
