Music Notes

Eliza Hewitt (1851- 1920) was born in Philadelphia. After graduating as valedictorian from high school she became a teacher. This ended when she suffered a debilitating back injury and became bed-ridden for an extended period of time. During her convalescence she studied English literature, however, felt a need to be useful to her church. She began writing poems for the Primary Department of her Presbyterian Church. She took this difficult time in her life to learn "More About Jesus." As we sing this beautiful hymn, pray that your life will reflect more of Him.
