Music Notes

"We Have This Hope", was published in response to a request that Wayne Hooper write a theme song for the 1962 General Conference Session in San Francisco. Hooper, a member of the King's Herald Quartet for the Voice of Prophecy Radio Broadcast, started thinking about the motto that had been chosen, "We Have This Hope." He prayed that the Holy Spirit would impress his mind with the right combination of words and music. In just a matter of half an hour, Hooper "had all the words and most of the music." Needless to say, this musical piece, with its rich music and theologically sound lyrics, blessed the 1962 General Conference Session, and has been used as a theme song for several sessions since that time. May this blessed hope soon be realized.
