Music Notes

"Hail Him The King of Glory" was written by Adventist composer Henry de Fluiter (1872-1970) Henry was not born into the Adventist faith but became a Seventh-day Adventist as a result of reading books sold by a colporteur. He studied Music/Bible at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. After spending 12 years working with HMS Richards he pastored a church in North Hollywood that was organized from newly-baptized members. Henry wrote 200 gospel songs, most on the subject of Heaven and the Second Coming. When we focus on Heaven and the Second Coming "the things of the world will grow strangely dim!" Good news indeed!
