Music Notes

Today we will hear two versions of the majestic hymn, "Praise to the Lord." The first will be played by Dave Wilkinson and his brass friends and then we will hear it again for the postlude. The author of the original German text is Joachim Neander (1650-1680), who studied theology in Bremen. His life was cut short by tuberculosis. Pastor Neander loved the natural beauty of the Neander Valley named for his family and it inspired many of his hymns. We also live in a beautiful valley. May the beauty you see this week inspire you to raise your voice in praise.
